Hi, [receiver name here]!

Here's a wild idea — don't mark this email as spam.

Why? First of all, because it's not a very nice thing to do.

Second, because we have something important to share with you.

Still reading? Great!

Have you ever felt like you bit off more than you could chew after taking on a business venture?

That's basically an entrepreneur's life — your mouth is full, and you don't really know what to do with it.

All you know is that you can't spit it out.

Wouldn't it be great if, at times like that, you had someone to turn to? We thought so.

We're [community name], and we want you to join us!

Never heard of us? Well, you're about to.

We're a small, but a growing community of business owners.

What we're trying to do is create an environment where every entrepreneur, regardless of their experience, would feel comfortable sharing their ideas.

We want it to become a space where owners can discuss, share experiences, and exchange strategies.

And what kind of hosts would we be if we didn't offer benefits? That's right. When you join [community name], you get access to content that's available only to members.

[You can stop talking now. I'm in!]

Still reading? Huh. We're not doing a good job convincing you. Perhaps you need a bit more information? Fair enough.

Stuff you can share

Sharing something about yourself, to begin with, would be nice.

It would make us very happy to learn about you — who you are both as a person and as a business owner.

The more fun facts you have to share, the better!

Next, if you joined us because you're stuck and you could use a few pointers, don't hesitate to ask a question! Being an entrepreneur means you're brave — pour your worries into words and make a post. We've all walked in those shoes, and someone will surely teach you how not to twist your ankle.

Also, if you're starting an email campaign or you want to celebrate accomplishing your goals, we're your people!

Most importantly, don't shy away from answering other members' questions! Just because you're new to [community name] doesn't mean your opinion is invalid. After all, we did invite you to join us, didn't we? Your experiences, good or bad, could be a drowning business owner's life vest.

Don't be a bystander — [community name] needs active members!
